KEYWORDS

Intellectual Disability (ID)	Intellectual disability is a broad concept encompassing various intellectual deficits. Intellectual disability is increasingly being used as a synonym for the term mental retardation which was used as standard medical references in the past.
Self-help Groups (SHGs)	Self-Help Groups are informal groups of people who come together to address their common problems. Self-help groups can serve many different purposes depending on the situation and the need.
Self-Advocacy	Self-advocacy refers to the civil rights movement for persons with intellectual disabilities and other disabilities. A self-advocacy movement is about persons with disabilities speaking up for themselves. Self-advocate/Group is those who conduct these activities.
Dao Ruang Group	Dao Ruang Group is the first self-advocacy group in Thailand as well as in the Greater Mekong Sub-region. A dish washing liquid produced by Dao Ruang Group is called "Sai Ning (clean and clear in Thai)".
Unity Group	First self-advocacy group in Myanmar
Rose Group	First self-advocacy group in Cambodia
Parents Association for Children with Intellectual Disability (PACHID)	PACHID is a Family Group who has children with intellectual disabilities in Cambodia.
Komar Pikar Foundation (KPF)	KPF is a non-profit organization in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. KPF works for children and youth with moderate and severe intellectual disabilities, by creating nurturing partnerships with other organizations in the disability sectors.
Ministry of Social Affairs, Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation (MOSVY)	MOSVY is the government ministry in charge of disability in Cambodia.
Disability Action Council (DAC)	DAC was established in 1997 as the national coordination and advisory mechanism on disability issues in Cambodia.

BACKGROUND

With support from the Asia-Pacific Development Center on Disability (APCD), the first group of self-advocates with intellectual disabilities in the Greater Mekong Sub-region, “Dao Ruang Group (marigold in Thai)” was successfully established in Thailand in March 2009.

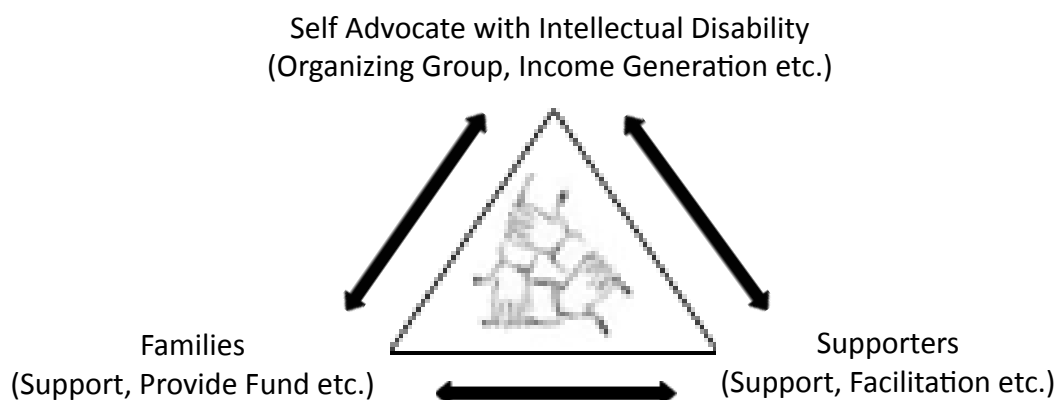

“Dao Ruang Group” continued to gain knowledge on how to conduct meetings, leadership and management of the group in cooperation with APCD. Dao Ruang Group became resource persons for the first time to support a workshop in Myanmar in 2010. The first group of self-advocates with intellectual disability in Myanmar, “Unity Group” was established.

The idea of the workshop was based on the request by the Komar Pikar Foundation in Cambodia. In response, “Dao Ruang Group” and “Unity Group” joined hands to share their knowledge to set up a group in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. The preparatory group consisted of the selected 3 groups including their family and supporters from each country, with technical support from APCD. The preparatory group analyzed the target groups in Cambodia, designed a program to establish the first self-help group in Cambodia.

The preparatory group considered how self-advocate group, supporters and family members could work together to manage its group operation as well as to maximize impacts on awareness-raising on intellectual disability in their communities. At the same time, some self-advocates in Cambodia had little or no speech. Therefore, a range of communication tools were needed to let them express their opinions, such as body languages, gestures, speech-attempts by supporters, drawings, post-it and photos, among others.

Finally, the workshop was arranged to establish the first self-help group on intellectual disability in Cambodia, to make the movement on intellectual disability recognized by the Government of Cambodia and relevant stakeholders in Cambodia, and to strengthen collaboration among representatives from Cambodia, Myanmar and Thailand.

Triangle Collaboration Strategy

SUMMARY

Establishing “Rose Group”, the First Ever Self-help Group of Persons with Intellectual Disabilities in Cambodia

The Workshop on Development of Self-help Group Network on Intellectual Disability in Cambodia was co-organized by the Disability Action Council (DAC) of Cambodia and the Komar Pikar Foundation (KPF) in collaboration with the Ministry of Social Affairs Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation (MOSVY) of Cambodia, the Asia-Pacific Development Center on Disability (APCD) and the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) at the Phnom Penh Hotel from 15 to 17 November 2011.

The Workshop brought together 100 Cambodians, including persons with intellectual disabilities, family members, NGO staff and government officials. H.E. Ith Sam Heng, Minister of Social Affairs, Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation of Cambodia delivered the opening speech as the chairperson of the ceremony after H.E. Mr. Sompong Sanguanbun, Ambassador of Royal Thai Embassy delivered the opening remark.

Throughout the Workshop, visual tools such as photos and drawings were utilized to share the ideas and non-verbal communication of participants with intellectual disabilities. The resource persons from “Dao Ruang Group (self-help group of persons with intellectual disabilities in Thailand)” and “Unity Group (self-help group of persons with intellectual disabilities in Myanmar)” shared knowledge about self-advocacy, roles of supporters, and information about income generation activities with the Cambodian participants.

One of the major outcomes of the Workshop was the establishment of “Rose Group”, the first ever self-help group of persons with intellectual disabilities in Cambodia. The Workshop concluded with the phrase “ID (intellectual disability) WE CAN”.

H.E Dr. Ith Sam Heng,
Minister of Social Affairs, Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation (MoSVY)

In relation to persons with intellectual disabilities, limited attention is given to them in some families within communities in the country, in comparison with persons with physical disabilities. On behalf of the Ministry of Social Affairs, Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation , I strongly motivate all disability service providers and pay more attention in a collaborative manner to ensure this group of vulnerable people are overlooked in present and future social development and programs. I would like to recommend to all of you to consider the following:

1. Discuss more deeply about the workshop topic related to development of self-help groups network on intellectual disability in Cambodia;
2. Explore ways and approaches to ensure that development of self-help group network on intellectual disability to become more progress through out Cambodia and addressing their basic needs;
3. Parent and guardians of children with intellectual disabilities must be committed to self-help groups and represent an active role model in society through exchanging experiences from neighboring countries, such as Myanmar and Thailand for those have this kind of experience of developing self-help group network on intellectual disability
4. Collaborate in establishing and supporting for the strong network including self-help group of persons with intellectual disabilities;
5. National and international NGOs working in disability must consider and include children with intellectual disabilities in their strategic plan;
6. National and international NGOs working in disability continue to strengthen collaboration with the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport in providing education for children with disabilities effectively and set up special classes for children with intellectual disabilities;
7. Continue to strengthen collaboration with other countries, especially neighboring countries such as Myanmar and Thailand in order to exchange experiences towards supporting persons with disabilities, especially those with intellectual disabilities.

Once again, on behalf of the Ministry of Social Affairs, Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation would like to call for support from Excellencies, ladies and gentlemen to pay more attention and start developing network and self-help group of persons with intellectual disabilities which to start just after the completion of the workshop along with our responsibility and bring more benefits for persons with intellectual disabilities as well as the whole society. With your strong cooperation and high determination of yours, I strongly believe that all children with intellectual disabilities access to their rights towards their potential and fully participation in society.

INTERVIEW

Ms. Phacharin Sujaritwatanasak
Leader, Dao Ruang Group, Thailand

I'm very happy to help setting up the Rose Group of Cambodia. I didn't expect that they can set-up because some of them are children but they did it! I suggest that the Rose Group have constant meetings. They have a good leader who is also good in writing. They can communicate with our group through Facebook. For next steps, Dao Ruang Group will develop our members and train new leaders. For Rose Group, I suggest they do fundraising activities to support their organization. For my message, government agencies in Cambodia should support SHG of persons with intellectual disabilities more.

Mr. Narongrit Wattana-labphan
Sub-Leader, Dao Ruang Group, Thailand

From this workshop, I gained more knowledge, more friends, more experiences. It was very exciting to be a resource person for the first time. I would like to support Dao Ruang Group more and more and I would also like to support other groups on intellectual disability such as the newly formed Rose Group of Cambodia. I wish the Rose Group will become strong and have more members. I also wish that there will be no more flooding in Thailand.

Mr. Min Swe Htet
Leader, Unity Group, Myanmar

I'm very happy to be here, now I have a chance to speak out and be confident to stand in front of many people. As a next step, it is important to develop strong linkages between Unity Group, Dao Ruang Group and Rose Group. For Unity Group, our next plan is to start a juice business in schools. My message to everyone is "don't give up!". Also, please organize more workshops like

Ms. Loch Sambo
Leader, Rose Group, Cambodia

I am very happy to meet many friends and teachers in the workshop. I wish I can eat a lot of food. I request teachers to help me to develop more skills.

Ms. Srey Sros
Secretary, Rose Group, Cambodia

I was happy to have many friends, played games during workshop. I wish to have income through Rose Group activity. Wish to have many delicious food!

Mr. Chandi Cheng
Program Manager, New Humanity Organization, Cambodia

I have been working with children with intellectual disabilities in rural areas for 10 years. The way to teach them is not so easy and you have to be very specific in the things you want to improve. An example is to show concretely how to wear clothes which can take up to 3 months. Either way, the key is continuously encouraging children with intellectual disabilities to learn even if it is a long process. This workshop is very interesting with the presence of parents, a lot of exchanges on first hand experiences, and expression of interest and support from various organizations. However, it is always challenging to sustain self-help groups. There are over 2,000 self-help groups in Cambodia and sustainability is always a concern. There's also a common issue where many SHG don't know what they're doing. It is then very important to define what are the support mechanisms for SHG. SHG can be good if NGOs and parents are facilitating. This is especially true with the newly formed Rose Group of Cambodia. For next steps, I suggest APCD to help developing a clear idea or strategy on how to work with persons with intellectual disabilities in education, self-help skills, communication skills and using specific tools for each skill. Developing global perspectives on intellectual disability and how to work effectively with parents is also very important.

Mr. Salai Vanni Bawi
Supporter, Unity Group, Myanmar

This is a very valuable information gathering program. We can see other objectives from other countries with good practical learning styles. Even if time is limited and some difficulties to communicate, I learned a lot about SHG here. For next steps, it is important especially for supporters to continue communicating and exchanging ideas thru email or facebook. We need to establish good networks with other organizations and help market products of persons with intellectual disabilities. For parents, organizing continued activities is vital. For SHG of ID, learning from each other on site thru exposure trips is also important. I would like to say don't give up even in the face of enormous difficulties. I also call upon parents and supporters to cooperate more in helping persons with intellectual disabilities.

Mr. Tep Buntha
Disability Development Services Program (DDSP), Cambodia

I think the workshop enabled government to understand clearly about ID. Our organization has created SHGs for other disabilities. We try to involve more parents. Attending the workshop is just a first step, and not enough. We will do more trainings for parents.

Mr. Jav Heng
Family Member of Children with ID and Staff of Komar Pikar Foundation (KPF), Cambodia

I have never been to any workshop focusing on persons with intellectual disabilities. I would like to persuade Cambodian parents to join us. I strongly hope that existing parents' group will improve more, despite funding is the

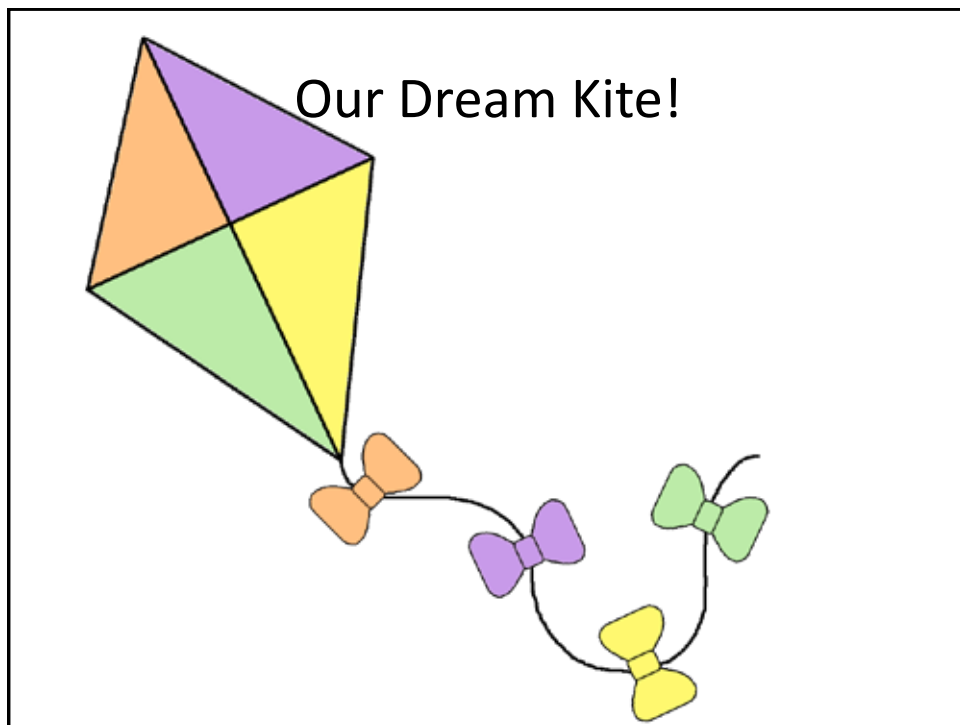

Ms. Huy Hung
Special Olympic, Cambodia

The workshop enabled parents to get involved more and disseminate what they have learnt to other parents. I want to form another group of young people with intellectual disabilities. I would like to learn more about dish washing liquid like Dao Ruang Group.

13 Steps to think about when developing a group

- 1. Introducing yourself: Who are YOU?
- 2. Do YOU want to form a group? Why?
- 3. What do you expect from the new group?
- 4. What can the group expect from YOU?
- 5. What is the name of the group?
- 6. Who should be entitled to become a member of the group?
(e.g. certain ages?)

- 7. What should people have to pay to become a member?
- 8. Should there be any people on the committee with special responsibilities? (e.g. leader, sub-leader, secretary, treasurer)
If so, how will these people be chosen or elected?
- 9. What sorts of things should the committee be responsible for?
- 10. How often should the committee meet?
- 11. Are there any particular rules that should be set?
- 12. How should the money and property of the Group be looked after?
- 13. What activities the new group will do?
